DAILY GAZETTE.

that city was sitting alone, writing, a few nights since, when a well dressed stratiger came in and inquired for a Mr. McCulloch. The clerk replied that he knew of no such person employed about the premises, and having made this answer, commenced writing. Two or three minutes later he discoviered that his strange intruder had not moved. He immediately turned about from the desk at which he was seated and scaned the gentleman's appearance, inquiring at the same time whether he had any farther business. He made no response, but coolly gazed at him with an air of indifferonce. This procedure aroused the suspicloss of the clerk, and be informed the gentleman that unless he could give a satisfactory account of himself he should be under the necessity of hustling him out of the office. The stranger, thereupon placed his hands behind him and leisurely replied:—

or, at the same time informing him that he would give him two minutes to leave the office. The stranger did not move, and did not offer any remark in return, but gazed steadily, with his hands behind him, at the clerk. The two minutes passed and there stood the stranger in statu quo. The clerk then took deliberate aim at him and fired. He stood within ten feet of the airanger. But notwithstanding these facts, the stranger, after the discharge of the pistol, remain ed as immoveable as ever. He exhibited no surprise whatever, and offered no remarks. The clerk was of course astonished, and not a little startled, and was at a loss what next to do, as he had discharged the only barrel of his pistol which was londed. After the lapse of about a minute af ter the discharge of the pistol-during which time no word was uttered-the stranger shook his coat skirts, gave a slight shrug and walked leisurely out of the room and down stairs. The whole affair was so unusual, strange and unaccountable, that the clerk was completely nonplussed, and remained stationary for a few moments after the departure of his visitor. Suddenly rousing himself, however, he rushed down stairs into the street, but the stranger had vanished. The clerk has heard nothing from him since. THE BATTLE OF VOLTURNO.-This battle, which was fought on the first of October, is the greatest in which Garibaldi has yet bren engaged. A writer, who was present,

But the presence of the hero in the thickest of the fight, inspired his men with courage, and the enemy were driven back. But again they returned to the charge, and again the contest seemed suspended in an even balance, and again they were driven back. Three times was the position of the Gambaldlans taken and re-taken at the point of the bayonet. But at length, after 12 hours' hard fighting, the

DAILY GAZETTE.

A BULLET PROOF SPECTRE.—The St. Louis Republican is responsible for the folowing singular story:

A clerk in one of the insurance offices of that city was sitting alone, writing, a few nights since, when a well dressed stranger came in and inquired for a Mr. McCulloch. The clerk replied that he knew of no such person employed about the premises, and having made this answer, commenced writing. Two or three minutes later he discovered that his strange intruder had not moved. He immediately turned about from the desk at which he was seated and scaued the gentleman's appearance, inquiring at the same time whether he had any farther business. He made no response, but coolly gazed at him with an air of indifference. This procedure aroused the suspi-cions of the clerk, and he informed the gentleman that unless he could give a satisfactory account of himself he should be mider the necessity of hustling him out of the office. The stranger thereupon placed his hands behind him and leisurely replied:—

"I've been sent here and shall stay here."
Without stopping to parley further, the clerk opened a safe near at hand, took out a revolver and leveled it at once at his visitor, at the same time informing him that he ould give him two minutes to leave office. The stranger did not move, and did not offer any remark in return, but gazed office. steadily, with his hands behind him, at the clerk. The two minutes passed and there stood the stranger in statu quo. The clerk then took deliberate aim at him and fired. He stood within ten feet of the stranger. But notwithstanding these facts, the stranger, after the discharge of the pistol, remained as immoveable as ever. He exhibited no surprise whatever, and offered no remarks. The clerk was of course astonished, and not a little startled, and was at a loss what next to do, as he had discharged the only barrel of his pistol which was loaded. After the lapse of about a minute of ter the discharge of the pistol-during which time no word was uttered—the stranger shook his coat skirts, gave a slight shring and walked lessurely out of the room and down stairs. The whole affair was so unusual, strange and unaccountable, that the clerk was completely nonplussed, and remained stationary for a few moments after the departure of his visitor. Suddenly rousing himself, however, he rushed down stairs into the street, but the stranger had vanished. The clerk has heard nothing from him since. THE BATTLE OF VOLTURNO,-This battle, which was fought on the first of October, is the greatest in which Garibaldi has yet bren engaged. A writer, who was present, says:

"I went through the whole campaign in Lombardy. I was present at Magenta and Solferino, and I fancied I was there again." The Neapolitan force was estimated at 80. 000. The Garibaldians had at first only 10,000, which was augmented to 15,000. Taking advantage of a fog, the Neapolitans came upon the Garibaldians by surprise at three different points, and carried some of their positions before Garibaldi had arrived on the field, and for a time the issue was doubtful. But the presence of the hero in the thickest of the light, inspired his men with courage, and the enemy were driven back. But again they returned to the charge, and again the contest seemed suspended in an even balance, and again they were driven back. Three times was the position of the Garbaldians taken and re-tak-en at the point of the bayonet. But at length, after 12 hours, hard fighting, the Neapolitans were routed on every side.

The loss of the Garibaldians in killed and wounded was about 1,200; that of the Neapolitans 3,000, besides some 5,000 prisoners. The royalists in this engagement attempted a decisive blow, but having failed, it is not expected that they will make another attempt. Garibaldi, in this contest, has won for himself fresh laurels, and added fresh proof of his ability as a general. THE ANTI-RENT DIFFICULTY FINALLY SETTLED.—The auti-rent suits were finally disposed of in the supreme court at Albany on Tuesday. The court of appeals, it will be remembered, affirmed the judgment of the supreme court, which judgment was in favor of the landlords, and directed the record of the proceedings to be communicated to the supreme court.

reme court. The realitur was filed Tuesday morning, whereupon Judge Hogaboom directed an order to be entered, declaring that the judgment of the court of appeals stand as the judgment of the supreme court, and the plaintiff have execution against the defendants for damages and costs.
Under the decision, the landlord can pro-eed at once to issue executions of the judgments rendered for the recovery of the amount claimed, and also the costs of the different actions.

"What is a snob?" "A snob, madam," says Quilp, " is usually a person of the fem-mine gender, and may be known by several characteristics. She is polite to her superiors; arrogant with those of lower station; fawns on the rich, snubs the poor, and pre-tends not to know her own mother when she chances to meet the old lady in unfashionable clothes. (She has plenty of brass and few brains; and is always; uneasy from a suspicion that her intrinsic, vulgarity may fail to be hidden by her outward gentility.

ONE CONSOLATION LEST. The Chicago: Journal says a republican down in one of, the "Egyptian" counties, recently remarkread and think for themselves, and were in consequence, rapidly coming over to the republican party. "Yes," replied the Douglas men, "but thank God we have at least four hundred men in this county who can't read, and we may rely on their vote every time."

1 THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt 1 paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but faw equals, and no superiors. They are founded agon the very best securities in the world—first class honds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyu—securities that have not, for the past rea years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panie, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided extements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the mylic for liberal patentage. at their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage,

He made no response coolly gazed at him with an air of indifference. This procedure aroused the suspicions of the clerk, and he informed the gentleman that unless he could give a satisfactory account of himself he should be under the necessity of hustling him out of the office. The stranger thereupon placed his hands behind him and leisurely replied:--

"I've been sent here and shall stay here." Without stopping to parley further, the clerk opened a safe near at hand, took out a revolver and leveled it at once at his visitor, at the same time informing him that he would give him two minutes to leave the office. The two minutes passed and there stood the stranger in statu quo. The clerk then took deliberate aim at him and fired, He stood within ten feet of the stranger. But notwithstanding these facts, the stranger, after the discharge of the pistol, remained as immoveable as ever. He exhibited no surprise whatever, and offered no remarks. The clerk was of course astonished, and not a little startled, and was at a loss what next to do, as he had discharged the only barrel of his pistol which was loaded. After the lapse of about a minute after the discharge of the pistol-during which time no word was uttered—the stranger shook his coat skirts, gave a slight shrug and walked leisurely out of the room and down stairs. The whole affair was so unusual, strange and unaccountable, that the clerk was completely nonplussed, and remained stationary for a few moments after the departure of his visitor. THE BATTLE OF VOLTURNO.-This battle, which was fought on the first of October, is the greatest in which Garibaldi has yet bren engaged. A writer, who was present.

"I went through the whole campaign in Lombardy. I was present at Magenta and Solferino, and I fancied I was there again." The Neapolitan force was estimated at 80,-050. The Garibaldians had at first only 10,000, which was augmented to 15,000.-Taking advantage of a fog, the Neapolitans came upon the Garibaldians by surprise at three different points, and carried some of their positions before Garibaldi had arrived on the field, and for a time the issue was doubtful. But the presence of the hero in the thickest of the fight, inspired his men charge, and again the contest seemed suspended in an even balance, and again they were driven back. Three times was the position of the Garibaldians taken and re-taken at the point of the bayonet. But at length, after 12 hours hard fighting, the Neapolitans were routed on every side. The loss of the Garibaldians in killed and wounded was about 1,200; that of the Neapolitans 3,000, besides some 5,000 pris oners. The royalists in this engagement attempted a decisive blow, but having failed, it is not expected that they will make another attempt. Garibaldi, in this contest, has won for himself fresh laurels, and add-

"What is a snob?" "A snob, madam," says Quilp, " is usually a person of the fem-inine gender, and may be known by several characteristics. She is polite to her superiors; arrogant with those of lower station; fawns on the rich, snubs the poor, and pretends not to know her own mother when she chances to meet the old lady in unfashionable clothes. She has plenty of brass and few brains; and is always uneasy from a suspicion that her intrinsic vulgarity may fail to be hidden by her outward gentility."

the outrageous extravagance of our ladies,

"If Queen Victoria would walk down Chestnut street in a pair of thick shoes, with Balmoral petricoat appearing over her instep, and a waterproof tweed sack on her shoulders, she would reduce our importations from France at least twenty-five per cent, and probably defer another American crisis for at least ten years.

ONE CONSOLATION LEFT.-The Chicago Journal says a republican down in one of the "Egyptian" counties, recently remarked to a Douglas democratic leader that the people of that section had commenced to read and think for themselves, and were in read and think for themselves, and were in consequence, rapidly coming over to the republican party. "Yes," replied the Donglas men, "but thank God we have at least four hundred men in this county who can't read, and we may rely on their vote every time."

Election in this City.

Lincoln's majority 337!!!

THE DEMOCRACY SCOOPED!!

The election passed off very quietly in this city. The chief contest was upon assemblyman. The democracy gave up everything else and strained every nerve to defeat Mr Graham. They continued at the polls the disgraceful efforts made in their newspaper, by getting up gummed and counterfeit tickets, and by the use of such slanders as they decimed best suited to effect their purpose. But all in vatu. The good sense and fidel. ity of the republicans to their candidate prevailed. It is a glorious triumph over an unsecupulous combination to defeat a worthy 73. Kirkpatrick 133; Beach 74. County man. We congratulate the republicans of ting city upon this victory. It is auspicious of their future union, and of other victories to come. The enemy have been met at all points and conquered.

Not less glorious is the majority of 339 for Lincoln. It is larger by 235 than that given to FREMONT in 1856. It shows that the growth of our party in this city is progressive, and that for the future, if we are caired, we need not fear the utmost endeavors of our opponents.

The Meeting Monday Night.

The Court Room was crowded to its utmost capacity on Monday night, by live republicans. There were a number of short, pithy speeches delivered by Messra. Hawes, Sloan, Patterson, Cassoday, Nichols, Burgess and Sleeper. It would be useless to point out the excellencies of the various speeches where all were good, but it will not be considered invidious to mention one; all will readily acknowledge that the dry wit and sharp points of John Nichol's speech have not been ex. ceeded here during the campaign. It was a treat which every one enjoyed, all the more as Mr. Nichols has not before appeared as a campaign speaker, in the presence of a Janesville audience, although he has long been a resident here; his palpable hits were, therefore, somewhat unexpected. We predict that Mr. Nichols will be in demand in political campaigns hereafter as a stump speaker.

A number of songs were sung by the excellent Wide Awake Glee Club, which done good service during the campaign, under the lead of John R. Bennett, Esq .--There are few better singers than John R. Bennett, Henry Hornick, J. Thompson and R. Brand, Jr., who constitute this club.

The Glee Club was assisted by D. D. Wilson and John Wingate, whose powers in vocal music are acknowledged by all. The meeting wound up by a song, executed in excellent serio comic style by J. M. Burgess, J. A. Sleeper and H. Hornick which was received by the crowd with rapturous applause. The meeting then adfourned at half-past ten o'clock, to assemole at the polis in the morning. This enthusiastic gathering, on the eve of election, all much towards inspiring our friends to work for Old Abe and the good cause, the next day.

The Assembly Election.

When Mr. Richardson was nominated we supposed he would receive a large and flattering vote; but as soon as we saw the course which the band organ was pursuing in electionsering for him, we became satisfled at once that he must be beaten by a considerable majority, and the result has proved that our conclusion was correct .--We knew that the concern over the river and greatly mistaken the intelligence and temper of the people of this city, but hardly believed they could damage so good a man as much as the result shows that it has. The result of the election for member will, we trust, teach our opponents to use hereafter none but manly and honorable means in their attempt to defeat republican candidates.

The Returns.

Our telegraph returns we are obliged to print as we receive them. We attempted at first to classify them, but found the task utterly beyond our power.

How it was Done! The glorious result in the town of Fulton is an illustration of the effect of the right kind of work. The town was thoroughly canvassed, and on a poll list of 264 republican voters, 253 were got out at the polls: Nine cheers for Fulton, and her hard working republicans!

To GGR READERS .-- We have delayed our paper till a late hour to night in order to publish as many election returns as possible. We shall issue our regular edition to-morrow afternoon as usual, containing ceturns from all parts of the country.

The beautiful red and purple silks, which are now so fashionable through the civilized world, are colored with a substance which is extracted from coal-tar called mau-

A RESIDENCE OF THE PROPERTY OF Election in this City.

Official Paper of the City.

GRAHAM'S MAJORITY 290 1:

THE DEMOCRACY SCOOPEDII

younts and conquered.

The election passed off very quietly in this cuy. The chief contest was upon assemblyman. The democracy gave up everything clse and strained every nerve to defeat Mr Graham. They continued at the polls the magracetel efforts made in their newspaper, by getting up gummed and counterfeit tickets, and by the use of such slanders as they desined best suited to effect their purpose. But all in vatu. The good sense and fidel. my of the republicans to their candidate provided. It is a glocious triumph over an the remainders combination to defeat a worthy man. We congratulate the republicans of the city upon this victory. It is auspicious of their future union, and of other victories to come. The enemy have been met at all

Net less glorious is the majority of 339 for Lancoun. It is larger by 235 than that given to FREMONT in 1956. It shows that the growth of our party in this city is progressive, and that for the future, if we are caucel, we need not fear the utmost endeavers of our opponents.

The Meeting Menday Fight.

The Court Room was crowded to its utmust capacity on Monday night, by live republicans. There were a number of short, pithy speeches delivered by Messrs. Hawes, Slean, Patterson, Cassoday, Nichols, Burgess and Sleever. It would be useless to point out the ex-erllencies of the various speeches whera all were good, but it will not be considered invidious to mention one; all will readily ac. | Congressional and county ticket average knowledge that the dry wit and sharp points | the same. of John Nichol's speech have not been ex. creded here during the campaign. It was gressional and county ticket about same. a treat which every one enjoyed, all the more as Mr. Nichols has not before appeared as a campaign speaker, in the presence of a Janesville audience, although he has long been a resident here; his palpable hits were, therefore, somewhat unexpected. We predict that Mr. Nichols will be in demattd in political campaigns hereafter as a stump speaker.

A number of songs were sung by the excellent Wide Awake Glee Club, which done good service during the campaign, under the lead of John R. Bennett, Esq .--There are few better singers than John R. Bennett, Henry Hornick, J. Thompson and R. Brand, Jr., who constitute this club.

The Glee Club was assisted by D. D. Wilson and John Wingste, whose powers in vocal music are acknowledged by all.

The meeting wound up by a song, executed in excellent serio comic style by J. M. Burgess, J. A. Sleeper and H. Hornick which was received by the crowd with raptorous applause. The meeting then adjourned at half-past ten o'clock, to assemole at the polls in the morning. This enthusinatic gathering, on the eve of election, d'I much towards inspiring our friends to work for Old Abe and the good cause, the next day.

The Assembly Election.

When Mr. Richardson was nominated we supposed he would receive a large and flattering vote; but as soon as we saw the course which the hand organ was pursuing in elections, ring for him, we became satisfled at once that he must be beaten by a considerable majority, and the result has proved that our conclusion was correct .--We knew that the concern over the river had greatly mistaken the intelligence and temper of the people of this city, but hardly believed they could damage so good a man as much as the result shows that it has. The result of the election for member will, we trust, teach our opponents to use bereafter none but manly and honorable means in their attempt to defeat republican candidates.

The Metarne.

Our telegraph returns we are obliged to print as we receive them. We attempted at first to classify them, but found the task utterly beyond our power.

How it was Done!

The glorious result in the town of Fulton is an illustration of the effect of the right kind of work. The town was thoroughly canvassed, and on a poll list of 264 republican voters, 253 were got out at the polls. Nine cheers for Fullon, and her hard working republicans!

To OUR READERS .-- We have delayed our paper till a late hour to-night in order to publish as many election returns as possible. We shall issue our regular edition

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phoenix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one FALL AND WINTER of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.--Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company. This prosperous corporation, in order to present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful struc ture will at once be crected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. GRAHAM'S MAJORITY 290 ! !

THE DEMOCRACY SCOOPED!!

The election passed of very quietly in this city. The chief contest was upon assem. blyman. The democracy gave up everything else and strained every nerve to defeat Mr Graham. They continued at the polls the disgraceful efforts made in their newspaper, by getting up gummed and counterfeit tickets, and by the use of such slanders as they 266. deemed best suited to effect their purpose. But ail in vain. The good sense and fidel. ity of the republicans to their candidate prevailed. It is a glorious triumph over an unscrapulous combination to defeat a worthy man. We congratulate the republicans of the city upon this victory. It is auspicious of their future uniou, and of other victories to come. The enemy have been met at all points and conquered.

Not less giorious is the majority of 339 for Liscold. It is larger by 238 than that given to FREMONT in 1856. It shows that the growth of our party in this city is progressive, and that for the future, if we are united, we need not fear the utmost endescent of our emponents.

to I am excellent serio-comic style by J. M. bargess, J. A. Sleeper and H. Hornick which was received by the crowd with rapturous applause. The meeting then adjourned at half-past ten o'clock, to assemble at the polls in the morning. This enthusiastic gathering, on the eve of election, did much towards inspiring our friends to work for Old Abe and the good cause, the pext day.

The Assembly Election.

When Mr. Richardson was nominated we supposed he would receive a large and flattering vote; but as soon as we saw the course which the hand organ was pursuing in electionsering for him, we became satisfied at once that he must be beaten by a considerable majority, and the result has proved that our conclusion was correct.-We knew that the concern over the river had greatly mistaken the intelligence and temper of the people of this city, but hardly believed they could damage so good a man as much as the result shows that it has. The result of the election for member will, we trust, teach our opponents to nso hereafter none but manly and honorable means in their attempt to defeat republican candidates.

The Returns.

Our telegraph returns we are obliged to print as we receive them. We attempted at first to classify them, but found the task urteds beyond our power.

How It was Done!

The glorious result in the town of Fulton is an illustration of the effect of the right hand of work. The town was thoroughly canvassed, and on a poll list of 264 repubtican voters, 253 were got out at the polls. Nine cheers for Fulion, and her hard working republicans!

T) Oca Respons .-- We have delayed car paper till a late hour to-night in order to publish as many election returns as posrice. We shall issue our regular edition to increw afternoon as usual, containing cecurus from all parts of the country.

Phonix Insurance Co. of Hartford. We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance .-

Continental Insurance Company. This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desira-ble property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the let of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Inde-

"Now is the accepted time"-to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.— Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance! prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.
